- Submit button label: “Submit Partnership Inquiry.”

- Confirmation message: “Thank you for your interest in partnering with 2W Productions LLC. Your inquiry has been received. We look forward to connecting with you.”
- Test the form on desktop and mobile and confirm submissions reach the business email before publishing.

Suggested placement and design

- Place the inquiry form below the featured productions banner and the three production descriptions or video excerpts.
- Use the heading: “Host a Production — Partner With Us.”
- Keep the form simple, welcoming, and easy to complete on a phone.
- Identify God Whispered and I Heard as an upcoming production, not a completed stage production.

Webador implementation note

- Add the form using the form element in the Webador site editor. Configure its fields, notification email, submit button, and confirmation message in the editor. If a desired field type is unavailable in the current Webador editor or plan, use the closest suitable field and check with 2W Productions before substituting.
